

Lyle J. Koffler

8-26-87

Lyle Jesse Koffler, 59, born January 19, 1928 in Slope County, N.D., to Raphael and Rose Koffler, died August 19, 1987, in his sleep of an apparent heart attack in his home at El Paso, Texas. He was a World War II Army veteran serving in Korea; a Milwaukee Railroad Agent/telegrapher for 25 years, working in Montana, North and South Dakota and also was a rural mail carrier in the Groton area. In 1976, he retired on disability.

After residing in the Groton area for 25 years, he made his home in El Paso, Texas. A memorial service was held August 25 with interment at Fort Bliss Military Cemetery in El Paso.

He is survived by his wife, Phyllis; a son, Mark; a daughter, Lona Belden; son-in-law, Curtis Belden; grandchildren, Jesse, Victor, and Summer Belden, all of Flagstaff, Ariz., and a brother, Dean of Lewistown, Mont.

Cards may be sent to the family at 5105 East Hawthorne Drive, Flagstaff, AZ 86004.